TRUMP CAMPAIGN HONORS THE LEGACY OF MLK

The echoes and memory of Dr. King live on as a guiding light for all Americans

NEW YORK, NY – As the nation solemnly observes the 50th anniversary of the tragic killing of civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr. today, everyone at the Trump Campaign extends their thoughts and prayers to Dr. King’s family and close associates. While Dr. King’s voice may have been silenced that day, his echoes and memory live on in our culture and society as a guiding light for all Americans.

“We join the nation today in solemn prayer and observance of the anniversary of the passing of the most impactful civil rights leader in our nation’s history, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.,” said Michael S. Glassner, Chief Operating Officer of Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. “Dr. King once said that ‘the moral arc of the universe bends at the elbow of justice.’ We take these words to heart as we work towards a more just society, where opportunities will be as big as the dreams of all Americans.”
