

In Montana, we're home to a rich legacy of service, and my family is no different. Growing up as the son of a U.S. Marine, I was taught the value of service before self. It is my honor to represent Montana's veterans. We must honor the men and women who put country over self, and put their lives on the line to protect our freedom.

In Montana, we're home to one of the highest per capita veteran populations in the nation. It's critical we ensure veterans receive the care, treatment and recognition they so selflessly earned. That's why I'm fighting in Congress to do just that.

In Congress I'm actively fighting to:

- Protect Montana veterans from scam artists
- Help Montana veterans start a small business

I'm dedicated to helping Montana veterans get the recognition they deserve:

- Helped Staff Sergeant Al Shryer receive the Bronze Star
- Assured Lance Corporal Jim Stogner received the Navy Cross Medal

A few other major accomplishments:

- Ensured Montana veterans have greater access to healthcare
- Fought to get our Blue Water Vietnam Veterans the healthcare they earned
